From The Pastor

ARE YOU MY KING?

As the piano played the melody, the guitar accompanied with a strong supportive tune, and the drums, cymbals and chimes of the Hallelujah Band played "You Are My King," the congregation rang out the words. A prayer, a praise, a testimony, a witness, a commitment, a heart-felt resolve to live a life worthy of even the words we were singing. In our minds and in our hearts the desire burned to live the truth that the Paschal Lamb is our King. The Suffering Servant is Lord. The sacrifice on the cross is Master, Teacher, Rabbi. God is Sovereign and His Son reigns supreme.

Now, the service is ended. What happens to that resolve that "You Are My King" when the music stops and we go our respective ways? The worship service is a time for each of us to be touched by the Spirit of God, to draw strength for the hours and days ahead in order to live out that life worthy of the sacrifice of the Christ.

The Palm Sunday worship is behind us; Resurrection Sunday is, or soon will be, in the past. But, the call to live as a child of the King resonates within us in the days and nights that follow. You are my King lives on within us in the moments of work, family, play, church volunteering. You are my King must be for twenty-four hours per day, seven days a week. The Christ calls us to lives that are under His influence and control in all areas of our lives, not just Sunday worship.

Do you take the same spirit of worship into your active life? Together we encourage each other to reach higher, live purer, be holy – to live as children of the King, as King's Kids. The Passover Lamb IS the King.

God bless you today, tonight, and into your tomorrows that you are a living witness to the truth "You Are My King."
