In the spring I planted seeds in my garden and now this summer I have plants where I planted seeds.... exactly the same kind I planted! You always reap just what you plant or sow. That's true in all of our lives as well. (Galatians 6:7) When we are kind and thoughtful and considerate, as God wants us to be, it makes our lives and attitudes and thoughts happier. You begin reaping in your own life. That's the kind of harvest we should all want to reap.
